

Boeing Access to Education Scholarship

Four Scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each will be awarded to current trade students enrolled at Helena College University of Montana. Preference will be given to students enrolled in the aviation maintenance technology, computer aided manufacturing or machine tool technology programs. Eligible programs include:

- Automotive Technology
- Metals Technology
- Aviation Maintenance Technology
- Welding Technology
- Construction Technology
- Computer Technology
- Diesel Technology
- Interior Space Planning & Design
- Computer Aided Manufacturing

Selection Criteria: 1. Status as an underrepresented or economically disadvantaged student determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). 2. Enrollment at Helena College in one of the above trade programs. 3. Must have and/or maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and demonstrate excellent leadership and communication skills. 4. Expressed interest in aerospace or cyber security careers.

Application Process: Please include this application coversheet, a typed personal essay, an instructor evaluation form (attached), and a letter of recommendation from a current/previous employer or a community member. Please have your instructor place their evaluation form in a sealed envelope to enclose with your application packet. The essay should include an explanation of your career goals, work experience, work ethic, attendance, grades and out of school activities (i.e., community service). Submit these forms to the Financial Aid Office, at Helena College, 1115 North Roberts Street, Helena, MT 59601 by November 3, 2017.

Scholarship winners will be encouraged to participate in summer internship opportunities offered by Boeing. Scheduled events for the fall in which scholarship recipients are expected to participate will include a "Careers in Aerospace" event and a "Scholars Dinner" with local/regional Boeing representatives.
