

Request for Library Instruction

Date of Instruction November 18, 2008

Instructor: Yarberry

Course Name: ENG 101 College Writing

Time of class: 6:00 pm – 7:15 pm

Class Size: 15

Classroom Building and Number: Donaldson 132

Projector in classroom? _____

Computer in classroom? _____

Objective of Session: Please describe learning objective and related assignment in as much detail as possible.

Hands on session will be focused on the mechanics of using journal databases, with an emphasis on selection of terminology and use of search techniques. The session is a preface to researching and writing a paper on an argumentative topic.

---

Learning Objectives:

1. Students will be able to identify at least two databases to use in researching this paper.
2. Students will be able to identify keywords for the concepts of their topic.
3. Students will be able to identify at least one technique to improve results when searching.
4. Students will be able to use at least one feature of a database (folders, citation formatting, emailing articles) to facilitate their research.

---

Specific sources or skills to be covered:

---

UM Helena OPAC (Online Public Access Catalog)

---

UM Helena journal databases, especially general undergraduate databases

---

Boolean operators

---